

Walsden St Peter's Newsletter for 30th November 2018

Christmas Fair – Saturday 1st December 10am - 12noon

Just a last minute reminder that tomorrow is the annual Christmas Fair. Thank you to Friends of Walsden for all your hard work organising this; it promises to be a great start to the festive season. Everyone welcome; please do come along.

Football news

Our U11 boys football team played at Shay stadium in Halifax last weekend. They played during half time and won their match 3-0. A great showing in front of a bumper crowd; well done boys.

Our U11 girls team played a league match against Barkisland last week and came out 4-2 winners. Super performance, you are going from strength to strength; well done girls.

Surprise visitor to Reception

Farmer Terry from Animal Quackers brought his European Eagle owl to visit. Reception have been learning all about nocturnal birds and animals so the visit linked in with their classroom work. The children were fascinated and had lots of questions to ask; thank you Farmer Terry for giving up your time.

Have we any expert shed builders?

Reception class have had 4 wooden outdoor sheds delivered but they are all flat-packed waiting to be assembled. Have we any parents/carers who would be willing to help build these? If you can help, please see Mrs Gray or Mrs Halstead; you will be rewarded with coffee and biscuits!

St Peter's Church news

Just a reminder that St Peter's Church Christmas Concert led by Todmorden Community Band is on tonight, Friday 30th November at 7:30pm. Admission on the door; Adults £6 Children Free. Wine and Cheese will be served plus there will be refreshments for the children. All welcome.

Y3 Multi-skills

Our Year 3 pupils took part in an inter-school multi-skills tournament at Todmorden Sports Centre yesterday. They showed some great skills and teamwork and won their group. Well done everyone.

Stars of the week

This week's stars are Sebastian Wright, Maxwell Clarkson, Maya Dransfield, Violet McGuire, Orla Cornall, Olivia Sutcliffe and Isla Clarkson. Well done to them all.

Lunchtime Awards

Our midday supervisors have chosen: Olivia Berry, Nella Deacon, Cohen Lillis, Martha Dawson, Maisie Ives, Robert Ratcliffe for their excellent behaviour at lunchtime.

Esther Logue & Emma Crowther, Headteachers.
